

Poetry of James F. Hill

This webpage is a tribute to a dear brother James Francis Hill of Flint, Texas. James went to be with the Lord in August of 2021. He was a remarkable Christian poet! Our friendship began back in 2002 with his first poetic contribution to the Messianic Literary Corner.

He continued contributing his poetry to this website for another fifteen years. James had an amazing love for Jesus and Israel. You shouldn't find this strange since many of the most fervent Christian supporters of Israel and the Jewish people are from Texas! God bless Jim! I hope you enjoy his poetic works and visit the Messianic Literary Corner often to discover its many interesting poets and Biblically centered articles.

In Yeshua's gracious freedom,
Marshall Beeber, Messianic Literary Corner
director

Jim's Favorites

Page One - Page Two - Page Three

Page Four - Page Five - Page Six

Page Seven - Page Eight - [Page
Nine](#)

Page Ten - Page Eleven - [Page
Twelve](#)

Page Thirteen - Page Fourteen

Back to content